WASHINGTON Dec 16.—In the Senate Sherman from the Finance Committee reported back the House bill fixing the [illegible] and also a resolution concerning the payment of the public debt declaring that neither public policy [illegible] good faith in the nation will allow the re[illegible] five twenty [illegible] the primary [illegible] coin [illegible] measures for the resumption [illegible]

This resolution was laid on the table to be [illegible] at an early day.

Sherman also reported back with [illegible] amendment a resolution introduced by Edmunds November 17 1868 pledging the faith [illegible] the payment of the public debt [illegible]

Wilson offered a resolution instructing the [illegible] Committee to inquire into the practica[illegible] and expediency of some immediate legisla[illegible] [illegible] for crime by the extraordinary [illegible] Judge [illegible] After discussion the word "extraordinary" was struck out as perhaps a reflection on Judge Underwood. The resolution was then adopted.

Conness moved to take up the bill providing that there shall be no reduction of the pay of the Government workmen on account of the reduction of the hours of labor. The motion was lost by 2[illegible] to 28.

Morton took the floor and made an elaborate speech in defense of his bill for the resumption of specie payments.

The Senate next took up the resolution expressing the Senate's disapproval of the President's financial views which was discussed at considerable length without reaching a vote. The Senate then adjourned.

In the House a resolution was adopted providing that the members proceed to draw lots for new seats which occupied considerable time and occasioned much merriment.

[illegible] from the Committee on Reconstruction reported a bill to repeal the act prohibiting the organization of militia in the rebel States so far as it applied to North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana. Eldridge inquired why Georgia was left out. [illegible] replied that there was an inquiry going on before Congress relative to the [illegible] of that State. It was questionable whether this bill should extend to Georgia or not. The bill passed.

The bill also passed extending the time fixed in the Internal Revenue law to February 1st 1869 after which all manufactured stuff [illegible] shall be deemed as having been manufactured after the passage of this bill.

[illegible] offered a resolution asking the heads of the Departments what reduction can be made in the number of employees.

[illegible] of Kentucky offered a resolution that all females in the Government employ be allowed equal pay when performing like service with males. The previous question was [illegible] the resolution was adopted by a vote of [illegible] against 2.

[illegible] demandin [illegible] Are you [illegible] agoin to adopt the merciless policy uv the extreme [illegible] or are you agoin to adopt the conciliatory policy?

I presoom that you don't understand the situashun in the South. I thus presoom that should you visit the Corners you wood find here two classes uv people whose tastes habits inclinashens and interests vary widely. On the one hand are the original Kentuckians uv wich Bascom, Deekin Pogram, Captain McPelter and Isaker Gavitt are [illegible] specimens and on the other the [illegible] the [illegible] store keeper [illegible] who was a Confedrit soljer [illegible] 10 or [illegible] families uv Northerners who hev bought land hereabouts and the niggers wich were freed by [illegible] Amendment.

These two antagonistic elements are perpetooally at war and the result is a chronic unpleasantness wich hez seriusly retarded the growth uv this secshun. The [illegible] uv course with [illegible] the Northern farmers and the niggers. The original Kentuckians desire peace—[illegible] The Northern farmers wood [illegible] and [illegible] keep up their own and ez we know em to be Republicans [illegible] our streets [illegible] They hold prayer meetings at each others houses they take Northern newspapers [illegible] the blessed fact that our people [illegible] extent and they hev set up [illegible] among the nigger children [illegible] How kin he live in peace [illegible] the niggers won't work for us unless we pay em and the result is our farms are run [illegible] But it is [illegible] Kentucky stock is gettin to be as scerce [illegible]

[illegible] in regard to us wat are you goin to do? Are you goin to pertect us or them? Are you goin to [illegible] on their side or ourn? Is Deekin Pogram's niggers to be pertected in their insolent refusal to submit to his guidance and [illegible] are they to be left to him to be dealt with as he chooses? Is the citizens uv the Corners to hev the right wich is theirs, to chastise these beings in their own way—to redooce em to their natural level ez they see fit or are they to be hampered by soljers and such and be forced to the humiliashen uv seein em ekal in all respects? In short shel we under yoor administrashun hev the rite to hang niggers and tar and feather Northern settlers ez we hev bin doin or not? That's the question wich our people ask and on yoor anser depends our support uv yoo. The Corners is open to proposals. The Corners can be secured [illegible] administrashun [illegible] driven into an attitood uv defiance.

It hez bin sed that yoo are a sphinx. Wat a sphinx is I don't know nor is ther any one in the Corners who does. But it must be suthin [illegible] or yoo woodn't hev bin so called. The great question is [illegible] are yoo agoin to continyoo to play sphinx? Are yoo agoin to continyoo in the groove to which yoo hev set yoorself or are yoo agoin to flop out and fling yoorself into our arms? That's the question that's agitatin me and the Corners as well.

[illegible] remember aright the concludin sentence uv yoor letter uv acceptance was "let us hev peace." I want peace and so does the Corners. [illegible] Easy enuff [illegible] Deekin [illegible] manage and control [illegible] his own way and he'll be at peace [illegible] Elder [illegible] who hez a distillery—in the offis uv Whisky Inspector Assessor [illegible] Internal Revenyoo [illegible] at peace. You kin thus pacify the [illegible] say that perhaps the [illegible] possibly they wood [illegible] Its her [illegible] that hez made all the trouble thus far. [illegible] they not objected all would hev bin at peace. [illegible] The niggers [illegible] Deekin Pogram [illegible] his gray hair his furrowed cheeks and his tottering steps. Is he to be forced in his old age [illegible] labor for his necessary [illegible] Isaker Gavitt, who was never [illegible] be brutto [illegible] the flower uv his [illegible]

We don't ask you to interfere in our behalf—we only [illegible] you to be at peace yoorself and keep hands off. Sheathe the sword and let us hev peace. Withdraw everything in the shape uv soljers [illegible] to the Presidency and nothin else and we [illegible] take care uv them.

[illegible]

[illegible] Awful Example [illegible] They [illegible] You can [illegible] the support uv the [illegible] That Boon [illegible] And likewise yoo can git [illegible] necessary. Steedman is waiting [illegible] Rosseau Kansas and [illegible] in fact all that noble army uv martyrs [illegible] John [illegible] that you support them. Take them U. S. Grant—take them. Don't despise my advice. Think uv [illegible] at yoor door for [illegible]

[illegible] necessary to speak. I am [illegible] Disappoint[illegible] the time I shal [illegible] habits—[illegible] I wuz deprived [illegible] by mistake I [illegible] My constitushun [illegible] a few years at [illegible] where I [illegible] them out [illegible] be smoothed [illegible] at the Corners [illegible] I kin [illegible] at peace. I know [illegible] the citizens [illegible] at peace [illegible] at some fashion [illegible] full [illegible]

Remarkable Movement Among the Jews

The Israelite published at Cincinnati, has a series of articles upon the Sabbath, which take [illegible] that a change of the day is lawful and expedient. The changes of the last half century, the writer, a gentleman living in New Orleans, declares to have rendered it impossible to observe [illegible] the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath. It might be proper in former times, but so were their observances which the Israelites have found it necessary to modify.

The command to keep the Shabbat or Sabbath, the writer declares does not instance the particular day of the week. Nor would it be possible in all parts of the globe, with the hours of sunset and sunrise changing with every degree of longitude to indicate by them any precise time which would be always the same holy period. The Christian world outnumbering largely the Jews, have adopted another day and it is very inconvenient to vary from their usage.

The writer also administers a gentle reproof to his coreligionists for their former implacable bitterness and persecution. Jesus he declares, was a reformer of the Jewish religion whom they caused to be executed and afterward they compelled his disciples to alienate from the Jewish church. They were themselves to blame that Christianity is now a faith outside of J[illegible]

The view taken by this writer is catholic and liberal. He evidently does not [illegible] his sympathy inside of his own religion, but [illegible] fellowship far beyond. He actually quotes St. Paul: "After the way which they call [illegible] so worship we the God of our fathers."

It is hardly probable however, that for [illegible] the dissemination of these views will result in apparent change. As the exigencies of trade [illegible] the clever people to "forget the Sabbath," while tenaciously adhering to the doctrine of observance of the seventh day of the week, it is more likely that a real controversy may take place between two future parties one of which will favor the adoption of the Christian [illegible] while the other will "esteem every day alike."

THE BORDER EDITOR.—The editor of the Owyhee Avalanche by way of describing his agi[illegible] ble vocation as the conductor of a frontier newspaper makes the following very inter[illegible] reflections:

Oh the felicity of editing a paper! Charming, agreeable in a horn! Fascinating, attractive occupation but so difficult to appreciate. How nicely and smoothly one gets along without any "unpleasantness!" For instance in a [illegible] we referred directly to a ruffian known as C[illegible] and incidently to a guerrilla named Al. Cage. We did this in justice to ourselves and the community at large. The other day, while [illegible] seated in our sanctum taxing our brain for more copy in response to the everlasting cry of the devil, the two above named villains, one of them armed with a hatchet, and the other with a bowie knife of large dimensions, made a violent attack upon our person. The only alternative was to fight or die. We accordingly [illegible] knife about two feet long used for cutting [illegible] and bled our assailants pretty freely. They [illegible] for mercy. We spared their worthless lives and told them to dust and they got up and dust. We would take this occasion to state, that if they or any one else attack us with the intention of doing us bodily harm, we will shoot them [illegible] in their tracks or cut their throats from ear to ear.

HEAVY BETTING IN SAN FRANCISCO.—[illegible] betting was never carried on to as [illegible] extent as it has been this year. A friend [illegible] that in San Francisco it [illegible] as though [illegible] had something bet on the [illegible] of the [illegible] Crowley's election sent at least $200,000 [illegible] Democratic into Union hands. On the State, gamblers in particular, were insulting [illegible] to get bets of three to one on Seymour. At the Cosmopolitan Hotel $175,000 were bet between [illegible] P M and midnight on the 3d—much of it [illegible] one. The best joke on the D[illegible] three or four hundred of the [illegible] drum and paraded the streets in honor of Crowley's election (?) betting [illegible] freely. This they continued for nearly two [illegible] Crowley and his friends knew he (Crowley) was elected. The writer says: "You [illegible] a despondent set as the Democracy are to [illegible] (8th). They have bet nearly a million [illegible] the State going for Seymour, and many are utterly ruined. There never was any [illegible] here or elsewhere. On the Market [illegible] the men bet everything they had on Cannavan's [illegible] election on the judgment of A[illegible], the [illegible] tendent. The black and tans, as we were [illegible] tized on election day, are indulging in broad [illegible] now. Next year we will carry this city."—Trinity Journal.

The Mother Goose story of Jack and Jill is not mere doggerel nonsense, it embodies a [illegible] myth. In the Icelandic mythology we read that Jack and Jill were two children whom the moon kidnapped and carried up to heaven. They had been drawing water in a bucket, which they were carrying by means of a pole placed across their shoulders, and in this attitude they have stood to the present day in the moon. Even now this explanation of the moon spots is to be heard from the mouths of Swedish peasants. They fall as the moon wanes and their water-pail [illegible] the supposed connection of the moon with [illegible] storms. Other forms of the myth occur in [illegible]

NEWSPAPER OFFICE DESTROYED BY A MOB.—Jasper Blackburn, the editor of the Homer, (La.) Iliad and a member of the present Congress, issues an advertising supplement from the [illegible] of a Democratic neighbor—the Claiborne Advocate—in which he says his office has again been mobbed and this time entirely ruined, so that he is only able through the courtesy and [illegible] of his neighbor, to publish the supplement to fulfill the contracts of his official obligation until it is definitely decided whether a free man in a free country will be permitted to publish a free, outspoken newspaper secure from molestation. He says he knows his rights and knowing [illegible] maintain them and he will be assisted if necessary by all the powers of this great Government.

Booth the tragedian had a broken nose. A lady once remarked to him:

"I like your acting Mr Booth, but, to be frank with you, I can't get over your nose!"

"No wonder madam," replied the tragedian, "the bridge is gone!"

Spread of the Small Pox

The Sacramento [illegible] is very severe in its censures upon the authorities of San Francisco for their [illegible] in relation to this terrible disease. It says that [illegible] intended to allow the pestilence [illegible] greatest possible chance to spread and [illegible] long time they could not have hit upon a better plan than the one they [illegible] pursued. That we are in danger from this dreadful scourge no one will question. The disease is spreading to every place which has communication with San Francisco. Is it wise to delay preparations for it until it makes its appearance among us? Proper precautions on the part of the authorities would be a great defense but every citizen can do much to secure us against its dangers. Vaccination is the great safeguard and prudence would seem to dictate that this be extensively resorted to. Regarding the spread of the disease in California and the negligence of the San Francisco authorities we take the following from the Sacramento Union's article:

At the last session of the Legislature Dr Elliott drew up and introduced a new and elaborate Quarantine and Health law for San Francisco especially, but designed as well for the protection of interior towns. It was most carefully considered and after being submitted for examination to eminent physicians and practical business men appeared to have the approval of all, and was admitted to be greatly superior to the existing law. The alleged causes for introducing this bill were several. It was urged that the old law did not give adequate protection even in ordinary times and it was believed that we were in danger from cholera, then raging in an epidemic form in parts of Central America and the West Indies. The dangers from small pox were also canvassed. It was raging in epidemic form at many places with which San Francisco has regular intercourse. This new law intended to save that city and the State at large from these menacing epidemics and the wisdom and necessity of which were generally conceded, was deliberately talked dead in the [illegible] on the last day of the session by a San Francisco Senator, without giving a reason for so doing. Sure enough the prophetic fears of Dr Elliott were realized as to the small pox. It came. It found precisely those atmospheric conditions at San Francisco which are most favorable to the development of the most malignant type of the disease. It found the city wholly unprepared to combat it. There were no hospital provisions or worse than none. The pest house very soon proved a frightful nuisance and to be taken to it was regarded as being doomed to the most horrible death. Of course public opinion would not uphold such a regulation, and it was in the province of public opinion to decide in the premises for the law was utterly lame and incompetent to enforce any regulation determined upon by the city authorities. And so the pestilence has festered in its dens without molestation and spread from them all over the city till, even according to the imperfect published mortality reports the number of deaths in the city last week was three times that for the corresponding week last year and still the small pox is increasing! And still there are no means devised to stay its progress. It will probably be left to run its course and wear itself out for want of material to act upon. It has spread to other places and is likely to run all over the State. If the interior manages it no better than the metropolis has done we do not see any chance of getting rid of the pestilence for months. Its victims are already counted by hundreds and it will be lamented by thousands unless we act promptly to arrest its spread and confine it to the present limits as much as possible.

Railways and Trade.—Twenty wholesale firms in St. Louis report to the Revenue Department sales to the amount of $100,000 each during the month of October, 1868. For the same month, one hundred and twenty-two firms in Chicago reported over $100,000 each, one of which—the highest—gave in sales to amount of $1,200,470. The highest firm in St Louis reported but $180,000. The second highest return for Chicago was $959,764. Two firms in Chicago sell as much as twenty of the largest firms in St. Louis. The difference between the wholesale returns of the two cities reduces the business of St Louis to that of a [illegible] country village as compared with that of Chicago, and it all results from the inferior railway system of the one and the incomparable system of the other place. The wholesale firms of Chicago, by means of the twenty or more railways that center there [illegible] the entire trade of the Northwest and no new railway can be made that will not enlarge the area of their trade. St Louis relying too much upon her river facilities, with her three or four railways, is falling away behind in the contest for commercial supremacy, and her great rival upon Lake Michigan will soon have command of the entire field. [illegible] says a California paper, furnishes the best demonstration of the fact that great [illegible] promote their interests by liberally [illegible] the development of the country around them; while St Louis is a warning against that arrogant and selfish policy which fears and balks at enterprise because its neighbors may share its benefits.

Answer to an Inquiry.—The Unionist wants to know who the persons are that constitute the "mercenary brigade." They are those who for the sake of holding office supported Johnson in his apostasy, who when they thought the Republican party was destined to be beaten by a recreant President and his rebel-Copperhead allies, talked for "[illegible]" and held themselves in readiness to join that coalition as active workers, who [illegible] Oregon to Johnson and talked [illegible] "too radical;" but who [illegible] the Republican party was going to [illegible] victory in the national election [illegible] their support and now ask to be placed or kept in important official positions where they will have opportunity to betray the party hereafter. These are the "mercenary brigade." They number fifteen or twenty persons distributed throughout the State, and the proprietor of the Unionist is a leading spirit among them. Those of them who are in office are seeking to be retained and those not in office are all clamoring for appointments. When a good and true man seeks an official position his conduct is not open to censure but when those who have tried to betray and defeat the Republican party ask rewards at its hands the case is very different. We shall mention names in the "mercenary brigade" just as fast as they give occasion for it. This will save them the trouble of calling the roll. We hope the Unionist now understands.

Singular Omission.—Our neighbor of the Commercial in a screeching article about the national debt and burdensome taxation exclaims "Our taxes are already more than we can bear." Perhaps they are but it is a singular circumstance that in the case of [illegible] persons, in fact nearly all who make most noise about the burden of national taxation the United States Collector has no record of their having paid a cent. It seems to be a singular omission perhaps a dereliction of duty that the exciseman of the Government have failed to preserve an account of the names of these oppressed persons and the amount of taxes they have paid.

Iowa.—The vote of this State was Grant 120,398, Seymour 74,128. Republican majority, 46,270. Total vote 194,526. In 1864 Lincoln had 89,075 and McClellan 49,596. Lincoln's majority, 39,479. Total vote, 138,671. Increase in four years 55,855. Iowa is marching on with giant strides.

Who Killed Cock Robin?

The small fry of the Democratic press have been for some weeks vehemently assailing the New York World for its proposition to change the ticket after the October elections. Foremost in the war upon the World has been the Cincinnati Enquirer. But the World has defended itself with great vigor and ability. It has shown that it was not alone in desiring a change of the ticket and has fastened upon the Enquirer itself a participation in the movement. In a recent article the World says:

Immediately after the October elections (we do not here allude to what occurred [illegible] before the October elections) the [illegible] of the Cincinnati Enquirer and other prominent Democratic editors and managers whom we will not name unless they choose to give us similar [illegible] both [illegible] and sent telegrams favoring an immediate change of the ticket by displacing Seymour and Blair and putting in new names. The World would gladly have witnessed the voluntary retirement of General Blair and did what it could to procure it—not stealthily but with a willingness to take the responsibility of an open recommendation. We could make it very awkward for some of those who were most forward in meddling our course on that occasion by showing what they tried to do but in a more covert manner. We had no wish to get rid of Governor Seymour although that purpose was charged upon us by those who had. The World was as fully committed to Governor Seymour's views as the Cincinnati Enquirer was to Mr Pendleton's.

The Herald's History Again.—As both the editor of the Herald and a correspondent of that paper are laboring under the impression that Thomas Jefferson the father of the political doctrines which produced the late Democratic rebellion, made the Constitution of the United States—or to put it in their own words—that "Jefferson was the leading spirit of the Constitutional Convention," we think it right they should be informed that Jefferson's agency in forming the Constitution consisted in writing letters against it from Paris where he then was, of which letters the following are extracts: "I confess there are things in it (the Constitution) which stagger all my dispositions to subscribe to what such an Assembly has proposed. Indeed I think all the good of this new Constitution might have been couched in three or four articles to be added to the good old and venerable fabric which should have been preserved even as a religious relic." Complaining that the new Government would have too much power he said "Our Convention has been too much impressed by the insurrection in Massachusetts, and on the moment are setting up a kite to keep the hen yard in order." To Madison and others he wrote at great length against the Constitution, which letters the Herald will find in full in the second volume of his works. The truth of history is that a large part of the Federal Constitution was antagonistic to the principles of Jefferson and the Democratic party to this day has not got rid of that hostility.

Is Woman Human and Immortal?—The Saturday Review has discovered an American writer who calls himself "Attila," who has written a work to show that woman is not a human being! Here is one of his Scriptural arguments, as condensed by his critic:

Passing over the inferiority with which according to "Attila," the Old Testament everywhere treats women we come to "Attila's" very curious gloss on Mark xii, 19-28. The Saviour, it appears, accused the Sadducees of ignorance of the Scriptures in the case of the seven brothers marrying one woman, because what He meant was, that the seven brothers should rise and that the woman should not rise, and therefore, in the resurrection, there would be no marriage, for the most conclusive reason, because there would be no women. Hence it follows "that woman will not resurrect, and has no part in the kingdom of heaven, as all those glories are for the human being, which the woman is not."

"Attila" is of course a "Democrat" of the new school and believes that dark skinned men, as well as women of color, are not human.

Stumpage.—The Olympia Transcript says that the stumpage charged for cutting timber on Government land will amount to a prohibition upon many lumbermen of the Sound. The price charged is two and a half dollars per thousand feet. The large mill companies however own extensive tracts of land from which they are cutting timber, having bought them up as fast as they have been surveyed.

The White Pine Silver Deposit.—The Mining Press publishes a letter from a mining engineer at Austin, Nev., describing the deposits of silver ore at White Pine. He says the very reasonable estimates give a million and a half to two millions as the probable yield of the mines for next summer, and adds:

The ore occurs as the Press correctly stated in bodies of irregular extent in limestones or perhaps more correctly, in dolomite. On Treasure Hill proper, perhaps ten distinct bodies have been found, several of very great extent (Eberhardt, Keystone, Bluebell, Aurora). But the most peculiar and as yet entirely undeveloped occurrence is that upon "Chloride Flat." At the base of Treasure and between this and the next hill, is a shallow ravine, and this is called "Chloride Flat." Sink anywhere upon it, and after going through from 15 to 20 feet of limestone you will strike a layer of "calcspar" from one half inch to one foot thick and beneath it what appears to be a layer of ore often of immense richness. This peculiar position of the ore affords a wonderful facility for its extraction, and Stetefeldt who has visited the district several times says that it is possible to "abbau" (to mine out) the whole in two years, with a production of silver as yet not to be estimated. The ore is a pure chloride or horn silver mixed with quartz.

A Wild Boy.—The Watsonville Pajaronian publishes a letter from Visalia, dated November 7th, giving an account of a wild boy. The writer, who is vouched for as reliable says:

A party of four men have just arrived in this place who have been out on a hunting excursion in the neighborhood of Kern Lake. While out one morning between Cholame Valley and the Buena Vista oil wells, they heard an unusual sound and after listening awhile found the noise coming nearer and they soon discovered a singular object coming toward them with great speed. When within about two hundred yards of them the strange visitor stopped and the hunters saw distinctly it was a boy, a good deal sunburned but whether an American or Spanish boy they could not determine. He was nearly naked having only a few shreds of cloth on his person. The party started in pursuit but the boy wheeled and ran rapidly back for half a mile, when he turned to the right and was lost sight of. The names of the hunters who saw the wild boy, are E. Wright, Robert Rich, Robert Burgen and [illegible] M. Sper[illegible]. Mr. Wright I am acquainted with and his word can be relied upon. They all agree that the boy was wild and much interest is manifested to know where he could have come from.

Small Pox and Scarlet Fever.—A correspondent of an exchange says: "I herewith append a receipt which has been used to my knowledge, in hundreds of cases. It will prevent or cure the small pox though the pittings are filling. When Jenner discovered the cow pox in England the world of science hurled an avalanche of fame upon his head but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world—that of Paris—published this recipe as a panacea for small pox it passed unheeded. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever. Here is the recipe as I have used it and cured my children of scarlet fever; here it is as I have used it to cure the small pox when learned physicians have said the patient must die it cured. Sulphate of zinc one grain, foxglove (digitalis) one grain, half a teaspoonful of sugar, mix with two tablespoonfuls of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours. For a child smaller doses according to age. If countries would compel their physicians to use this there would be no need of pest houses. If you value advice and experience use this for those terrible diseases."

Squib of the Lowell Courier thinks that the tune "When the Morning Stars Sang Together," must have been common meteor.

Memphis, Dec 17.—The [illegible] Duvall's Bluff Arkansas special says this evening as the [illegible] firing on the pickets in [illegible] occurred. One of the pickets was [illegible] killed and another wounded. The [illegible] have gone to stop atrocities from attacking [illegible] has prisoners in the [illegible] with powder underneath and threatens to blow it up if attacked. [illegible] arrived here [illegible] compelled [illegible] county the militia threat [illegible] captured.

New Albany, Dec 17.—The coroner's jury investigating the late hanging tragedy at the jail have returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death by hanging at the hands of parties unknown.

St Louis, Dec 17.—The National Land Association completed the sale to day of 3,000 acres of the Kansas Pacific Railroad Company land to a colony of Swedes from northern Illinois. These lands lie in one body in Lincoln county and will be occupied in the spring by two hundred families.

Suit for Damages

Boston, Dec 17.—R. H. Dana has sued the Mayor and Aldermen of Cambridge for $[illegible] damages for erasing his name from the voting list.

Prize Fight

Chicago, Dec 17.—Bussey and McAlpine two light weight fighters fought a prize fight across the Indiana line yesterday. McAlpine was declared winner on the [illegible] round, on account of a foul blow by Bussey. McAlpine was severely beaten and is probably fatally injured. Bussey is almost unhurt.

From Cuba

Havana, Dec 17.—The Diario which is strongly in the Spanish interests says that within the jurisdiction of Santiago de Cuba, this year no crops will be gathered. The insurrectionists carry off the coffee as fast as it ripens and feed the sugar cane to their horses. Steam transports from Spain with reinforcements arrived to day. The Spaniards since their arrival feel more confident that the revolution will speedily terminate. The Diario publishes accounts of misery prevailing in Santiago de Cuba, which it says is heart rending. The Eastern department is ruined for years to come.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

Vienna, Dec 17.—An official dispatch from Constantinople says the ultimatum of the Sultan has been rejected by Greece. The Greek Envoy here has received his passports, and all of the Greeks remaining in Turkey after a fortnight, (the women excepted) will be regarded as subjects of the Sublime Porte. A squadron sailed hence to reinforce the fleet of Hobart Pascha.

London, Dec 17.—A telegram from the East states that the Greek steamer Enosis was pursued by a Turkish man of war and took refuge in the harbor of Syra. She is now blockaded by Hobart Pascha, Admiral of the Turkish fleet in the Archipelago.

John Bright has accepted a position in Gladstone's cabinet as President of the Board of Trade. Mr Layard has been appointed Commissioner of Public Works.

The Times says Reverdy Johnson's assurance that the Alabama negotiations are closed, must be accepted though with surprise, seeing he made increasing demands after Lord Stanley had surrendered all that could be abandoned honorably. It regrets that so much has been made public about negotiations. The Telegraph thinks Johnson would have fared better had he been less zeal ous for peace. The Standard asks if radical zeal for American interests will continue in the Government now that Lord Clarendon is Foreign Secretary.

St Petersburg, Dec 17.—It is officially stated that the designs of Russia in Central Asia are not with the view of the extension of her territory but for the purpose of strengthening the treaty with the Emir of Bokhara and securing a more permanent peace.

Lisbon, Dec 17.—The mail steamer from Rio Janeiro has arrived here.

The Marquis of Coxias was on the point of making an attack upon Tillita, the last strong hold.

General McMahon, U S Minister, had gone up the Paraguay river with the American gun boat.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

San Francisco, Dec 18.—Judge Provines of the Police Court, excludes Chinese testimony in the case in which it was sought to be introduced on the strength of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution putting the decision on the ground that the amendment in question refers only to citizens and was not intended to interfere with or abrogate any rules of evidence established by the laws of States.

Thomas Stevens has been arrested in New York upon charge of swindling J. C. Merrill & Co of this city. He played the confidence game and got them to cash his draft for $2,500.

Horrible Calamity

A MOTHER AND HER TWO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH BY A KEROSENE ACCIDENT

A heart rending affair occurred at Sing Sing N. Y. on the evening of November 9th—one which has cast a feeling of deep gloom over the entire village and which resulted in the death of a mother and her two children. After dark Mrs Leslie [illegible] in the family room with her babe only nine months old in her arms while under a table on which rested a kerosene lamp was the little son aged three years playing and kicking up his heels in childish glee. By accident his [illegible] foot struck the table too hard causing the flame of the lamp to flicker wildly the oil inside igniting and exploding immediately the inflammable material streaming over the table and dripping in liquid flame on the floor setting fire at once to the little boy's clothing. With a cry of horror on her lips the frightened mother set the babe upon the floor and rushed to the rescue of her darling child caring not for herself being intent and unmindful of her imminent peril. While she was doing her work of mercy the creeping flame, all unknown to her had also stealthily caught her own clothing, and before she could extinguish them she too, was wrapped in flames. Turning suddenly about with terrible pain she uttered a wild terrible scream as her eyes rested upon her darling babe, who was now also enveloped in the cruel flames, when shriek after shriek of agony was heard proceeding from the dwelling the neighbors hurrying to the scene in great confusion. As soon as possible the three sufferers were almost smothered in carpeting, and the flames were extinguished when the sight presented as the victims were exposed to view was a harrowing one indeed. Blistered and burned writhing with pain everything was done for them that was possible the best physicians being in attendance but all to no purpose as the three died the next morning. When the father of the family heard of the affair with heart in his throat he fairly flew to his residence and on beholding the awful scene before him fell prostrate to the floor in a swoon. He is a cutter for J. A. Ath[illegible]s the tailor. The three bodies were viewed by hundreds of villagers and the terrible accident was the only topic of conversation on the streets.

Detroit has forty eight churches and four mission chapels.

The Bend.—An economical method of producing the Grecian Bend has been discovered. On rising in the morning before breakfast, take, on an empty stomach one pint of green chestnuts, two large green apples, half a pound of raw cabbage and a quarter of a pound of honey. A little milk and vinegar will aid to the effect. The bend in the most approved form will appear in about half an hour.

CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be virtuous on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least [illegible] a person can possess. It is not always by giving money to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can [illegible] show their charity. A good advice is often better than money, for instance directing a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line [illegible] toward that [illegible] to Kohn & Fisher [illegible] that [illegible] the lowest rates and receive good goods and where [illegible] be satisfied?

[illegible] AT WALLAMET FALLS.—This enterprise for which a strong company of Oregon men has been formed is [illegible] the most important yet projected in the State next to railroads. The design is to overcome the falls of [illegible] feet by means of a navigable canal of capacity sufficient for river steamers, and also to supply water power for manufacturing purposes. It is supposed [illegible] will be sufficient in a distance of 3,000 feet. As [illegible] measurements and estimates have yet to be made and plans adopted, it is quite uncertain what the expense may be, but the best authority has decided the capital provided, say $300,000, to be quite sufficient for a [illegible] work strong enough to resist all risks likely [illegible] For most of the distance the west [illegible] will be the rock [illegible] of the [illegible] The eastern will [illegible] masonry on rock foundation, so that absolute [illegible] would seem to be secured. It is gratifying that this enterprise, so long desired by all intelligent [illegible] acquainted with the locality, is now undertaken [illegible] parties amply able to carry it through and that a volume of water, unlimited in quantity, that has hereto[illegible] gone to waste, is now to be applied beneficially to the use of man. The benefit to the valley in removing the [illegible] caused by the obstruction, and of laying down produce in Portland, at the light expense of transportation fully justifies the subsidy given this work by the [illegible] and may in time, by the terms of the [illegible] make it a free canal subject only to the cost of its repairs and use. The facility for manufactures [illegible] must be availed of in time an extensively on both sides of the river as to make Oregon City the lead[illegible] source of supply of every fabric for this whole coast [illegible] work of a similar character, built by the [illegible] of Sweden, is thus described by a traveler, [illegible] Magazine for September, 1865

THE GOTHA CANAL.

[illegible] of the engineering difficulties which must [illegible] this work, we must consider what the [illegible] of which it was the solution. The naviga[illegible] pleted between the Wenern Lake and [illegible] had been long since between the Menern [illegible] But the Gotha at Trolhattan is [illegible] of a fall, which, taking into consideration [illegible] cascades, must far surpass that of the [illegible] In fact the shipping has to be [illegible] to the top of a mountain. It is true that the [illegible] of immense area, and is honey-combed with [illegible] the largest of which is the immense [illegible] only to Ladoga, the largest lake in Eu[illegible] lives at Trolhattan at a place wear [illegible] characters of Alpine scenery, the pines, the [illegible] the purity and the rarity of the air. Up [illegible] ships, some of which have three masts, [illegible] This can only be done by a canal, [illegible] the solid rocks, and with so many locks on [illegible] presents the appearance of a watery staircase [illegible] something stupendous and even frightful in the [illegible] If a steamer were impelled just a trifle too [illegible] to burst one of these locks! It seems to [illegible] and the whole series of locks would [illegible] one upon another, in a vast cascade of water and wreck, as big as Trolhattan itself [illegible] not sufficient to make ascent. The [illegible] small to admit steamers so human labor, [illegible] of natural difficulties, has made a second [illegible] and less [illegible] which joins on [illegible] For the statistics of these works, Murray's [illegible] of Northern Europe, Vol. 1, will give the full [illegible] We never saw a more picturesque [illegible] it is just the reverse in character to the [illegible] in Dutch pictures, which are also pictur[illegible] illustration of the power of labor, [illegible] in full sail, passing proudly over the [illegible] channel of blasted granite [illegible] beauty of our falls as they appeared to us [illegible] old mill, hundreds of [illegible] which have gone to all parts of the world, [illegible] marred by all the structures that may cluster [illegible] The utilitarian may admire what na[illegible] and have the additional delight of seeing [illegible] inimitable beauty can be united with the kind [illegible] excited by the consideration that the happiness of thousands of our race are se[illegible] by these achievements of art.

[illegible] SCHOOLS.—We have received two or three [illegible] the several [illegible] by visit [illegible] to the Harrison street school and is [illegible] to the Principal, Mr. E. K. War[illegible] to his subordinates and pupils. Mr Warren [illegible] achieved a very enviable position in the [illegible] of both pupils and parents, and no doubt de[illegible] the accommodation given him by our [illegible] The character of the declamations, colloquies [illegible] and the Young Ladies' Paper, is quite [illegible] Another communication relates to the [illegible] in which the closing exercises were [illegible] The writer says: "Having spent four hours in your North school, I deem it due to the [illegible] to say that I was much pleased with [illegible] of the bright and in[illegible] of the pupils in all the four depart[illegible] with their prompt and intelligent answers to the [illegible] submitted to them by their teachers. While I [illegible] two of the Directors came [illegible] a few questions as to the conduct of the pupils, the replies to which were [illegible] One of the Directors addressed the [illegible] urging them to submit promptly and [illegible] to the rules of the school. He expressed him[illegible] with the reports of the teachers and hoped [illegible] would continue to improve and grow up to be [illegible] As I have heretofore remarked in this [illegible] two older schools of this city, Portland may [illegible] three large public schools and [illegible] To make them complete and to be able [illegible] full benefit of the money expended, the [illegible] should be more thoroughly and carefully graded, [illegible] should be made for public examinations [illegible] pupils in each grade in one room. This would [illegible] emulation among both teachers and [illegible] the classification more easy. There is [illegible] why the public schools of this city should not [illegible] rank and exert a salutary influence in [illegible] the serious complaints so often heard about bad [illegible]

[illegible] OF HARRISON STREET SCHOOL.—The following [illegible] of the Harrison street school for the term [illegible] day:

PASSENGERS FOR VICTORIA.—The steamship Active [illegible] last evening for Victoria, having on board the fol[illegible] named passengers: P Hartway, John Elliott, N [illegible], Daniel Dewvin, N McDonald, J Trueworthy, W [illegible], Irvin Allen, Thos Worm, C McHardy, A B [illegible], R Arthur, L Edmonson, J E Edmonson, Robert [illegible], R Graham, A Mayne, John O'Brien, N McArthur [illegible], S N Arigoni, W C Whitson, P O Sullivan [illegible] Parsham and child, Mrs M M Lucas, Frank O [illegible], Fred Bender, Joseph Moroney, W Stannum, C M [illegible], Victor Laerf, R Randle, Gee Young, and 87 others. Also 170 tons freight, 100 head sheep, 13 head cattle and 1 prize hog.

[illegible]—Miss M Fields, an actress of some celebrity [illegible] of the Marsh-Stone Troupe, Victoria, arrived in this [illegible] Thursday evening with a view, as we are informed, [illegible] making some arrangement for appearing upon the [illegible] here. We remember to have seen in the Victoria [illegible] spring some very flattering notices of her [illegible] of leading characters in the popular and [illegible] plays. Miss Fields is not altogether unknown in the literary world, having contributed at one time [illegible] a good many meritorious articles to various [illegible] We hope that her errand here may result [illegible] satisfactorily.

[illegible] SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—At two o'clock [illegible] noon, Mr A B Richardson, Auctioneer, will [illegible] auction for the Administrator of the Lownsdale [illegible] several lots and parts of blocks, situate in desir[illegible] localities in this city. Also a valuable tract of farm [illegible] land situate three miles from the city, in Peter [illegible] land claim. This sale will afford an excellent [illegible] for investment either on a small or large [illegible] Those in want of homestead locations should at[illegible] the sale by all means. WEEKLY STATEMENT OF PRODUCE RECEIPTS.—Arrived [illegible] the week ending yesterday, 7,125 sks flour, 350 [illegible], 64 cases and hf bbls lard, 57 boxes eggs, 17 [illegible] bacon, 5 tons pig iron, 251 sks feed, 14 bales [illegible], 90 sks middlings, 38 sks bran, 290 sks barley [illegible] sks oats, 23 bbls beef

REVIVAL.—We learn that last week during a two days meeting at the Sandy schoolhouse under the ministra[illegible] of Rev W I Cooper, there were fourteen professions of conversion to religion. There were also ten accessions to the membership of the Church

EAST PORTLAND SCHOOL.—The East Portland school J [illegible], teacher, will have a vacation from the 24th till after the holidays. The public and the patrons of the school are invited to attend the closing exercises on [illegible]

MONEY TO PAY.—Mr McCoy, School Clerk, is prepared to pay the teachers of the public schools and desires them to call on him as soon as convenient [illegible] U. S. DIST. COURT will meet this, Saturday, [illegible] and will dispose of the application to remit bail [illegible] of United States vs A B Mercer.

DALLAS ITEMS.—The Mountaineer of yesterday has the following: The ladies of [illegible] Society will give a New England supper and entertainment at Williams Hall Monday evening [illegible] the hanging of a bell in the [illegible] Church. The weather for the last four or five days has been very rainy for this section of country. We learn from a reliable source that Mr. John Williams received money from the East with which he has paid back to Mr. Cushing, School Clerk of this District, the money he borrowed [illegible] Frank [illegible] the person whom we mentioned last week as having [illegible] examination [illegible] this week before Justice Savage [illegible] Mr. F. [illegible] Roberts [illegible] Misses Annie [illegible] We [illegible] Dallas R. A. Starr writes Dec. 10th that [illegible] protracted meeting [illegible] number of conversions at Irving S. H. 18, at Liberty S. [illegible] making [illegible] all.

OREGON CITY AND RIVER ITEMS. (COMMUNICATED).—The Children's Concert and Exhibition held last Thursday night at the M. E. Church by the Sunday school scholars was a very enthusiastic gathering. D. C. Ireland of the Enterprise with some six or eight young men will join the order of Good Templars there to-night. Mr. Fred. Charman's chances of recovery were reported no more encouraging yesterday than the day before. The river is coming out in the height of winter fashion, putting on a big bend. From Wednesday morning it raised eight feet in 48 hours. The P. T. Co.'s boats are now making haste to accommodate shippers on the upper river who have waited long if not patiently. Boats will be dispatched now to all points and will bring an avalanche of grain and things with fair women and brave men to the metropolis. The P. T. Co. are putting in a fender frame below the dock so as to form a slip to land the Portland boats, something after the fashion of slips in the city of New York, for vessels. The factory wheels are moving onward [illegible] out the well formed web.

MEUSSDORFFER'S HAT EMPORIUM.—Mr. Meussdorffer has just moved into his new quarters in White's brick block corner of Front and Morrison, where he has fitted up things in a style equal if not superior to any establishment of the kind on the Pacific coast. The room has been constructed and the finish applied under Mr. Meussdorffer's own directions and the result speaks highly for his taste. The show windows especially are elegant, being fitted with large plate mirrors which reflect and multiply the contents of the interior in a fanciful manner, the effect of which is especially beautiful when the place is lit up at night. The interior arrangement of stands, racks and shelves is very favorable for the display of the immense stock of goods on hand. As commodious as the room is, the place is filled to overflowing, with hats, caps etc. of all the late and fashionable styles. Some of the lately introduced styles of soft hats are very handsome and peculiarly adapted to Oregon winter wear. We advise all in want of this line of goods to call at Meussdorffer's. It would be almost impossible to fail of finding something to exactly suit every taste.

NEW BOOT AND SHOE STORE.—We called in yesterday at the boot and shoe store of E. D. White & Co. just opened in White's brick block. Like the store of John Wilson and Mr. [illegible]dorffer, in the same building, it is elegantly fitted up, well lighted and in every way an improvement upon any of the old-stylest accommodations in the city. White & Co. have opened a large and superior stock of boots and shoes; for particulars concerning which consult their advertisement, or better still call at their store.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS EVE FESTIVAL.—On Thursday evening next, the pupils and teachers of the M. E. Sunday School will have a festival and Christmas tree at the basement of the new church. A committee has been appointed to receive and take charge of such presents as may be sent in for the children and a general invitation is extended to all who desire to make presents to friends, to use the tree for that purpose.

THE NEXT TERM.—The next term of the public schools will commence on the 4th of January proximo.

GRACEFUL AND PLEASING.—Those new and beautiful styles of Parlor Suites, now so fashionable at the East. Can be seen at Hurgren & Shindler's. Also, many rare articles of ornament and use, for the parlor and the house.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Mrs. Levy has just received, per steamer "Ajax," an elegant lot of Double and Single real Broche Shawls, Velvet Circulars, Astrican Cloth Cloaks, etc. etc.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr. Fitzgerald has opened a Night School in the schoolhouse (up stairs) near the Catholic Church. For Terms—See the Teacher.

One day while promenading the streets of the town,
With a very poor chapeau surmounting my crown,
I met an old friend whom my taste did not flatter,
For he asked me indignantly—"Who is your Hatter?"

"My good friend," I answered, "of such I have none,
'Tis long since I made the acquaintance of one,
My head gear, I know, is all going to seed,
But I'll visit your Hatter, if you'll take the lead."

"Agreed," he replied, so we sauntered along,
And making our way through the gay, busy throng,
Each puffing in silence a fragrant cigar,
We stopped at the Corner—at MEUSSDORFFER'S BAZAAR!

We found the Emporium of Fashion well stored
With Hats and Caps, fit for a lord!
I was speedily suited in price, fit and style,
And observed to my friend, with a satisfied smile,
"Your judgment in this as in most other matters,
Is unerring, for MEUSSDORFFER'S the Hatter of Hatters!"

Let the leader of Fashion be what e'er he may,
And the Hatter whatever he pleases can say,
But Corner Morrison and Front streets always for me!
For MEUSSDORFFER, the Hatter of Portland is he!

HATS! HATS! HATS!
FOR EVERYBODY!

Are now to be found at MUESSDORFFER'S New Hat Store, Corner Morrison and Front streets which will be OPENED TO-DAY Dec 17th.

ANNUAL GRAND OPENING
SANTA CLAUS' BUDGET!
McCORMICK'S BOOK STORE!
WHERE MY
HEAD-QUARTERS!
HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED
For the past Seven Years,
AND WHERE
I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL
DURING THE COMING FESTIVAL
THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE
The Christmas and New Year's HOLIDAYS!
I herewith issue my Annual PROCLAMATION!!!

Dear Parents and Children—once more I appear
And wish you good Christmas and Happy New Year!
I've brought you glad tidings—I've opened once more
My Budget of Wonders—at McCormick's Book Store!
I've spread out my treasures, so give me a call
And view the nice GIFTS I've procured for you all
My Presents this year were conveyed to the town,
By Mercer's new clipper, the swift Sallie Brown
The stock's most complete. The assortment comprises
Curiosities rare, of all shapes and all sizes!
I've Dollies that talk—I've babies that dance
(Bless me, very handsome, I purchased in France)
I've Fish that can swim—I've Roosters who strive
To crow so like nature you'd think they're alive
I've Guns, and I've Cannon—I've neat Savings Banks,
And Soldiers that look very neat when in ranks
I've Pistoles and Pistols. Then Christmas to keep,
I've Candles, Reflectors, and Brackets—a heap!
I've beautiful Baskets (a nice gift for Ma)
And handsome Cigar Stands—just suited for Pa!
While there's nothing so welcome to uncle or aunt
As a beautiful portrait of President Grant!
I've Work Boxes—handsome as ever were made—
With ladies' utensils all nicely arrayed.
I've nice setts of China—I've Vases of Flowers,
And Musical Boxes that play at all hours.
I've Furniture, Villages, Steamboats, and Blocks,
That gay little joker, called Jack-in-the-Box!
I've Tables, and Dressers, for China or doll,
I've nice Solitaire, that you play by yourself!
I've new Magic Lanterns—a beautiful sight
To make all good children merry at night.
For girls at school I've a nice Skipping Rope,
And for family fun I've the new Zoetrope!
I've Games that instruct, and Puzzles that amuse,
For Gifts to good people I never refuse
In fine, I've got all that each heart could desire,
To name them all over your patience I'd tire,
But call on me early, or call on me late,
I'll visit your houses all over this State—
In Washington's clime—up in young Idaho
I'm sure to find children wherever I go;
I've travelled for years—you all must remember
I'll be Sixty name at the end of December.
My hair is all white, and my body doth tend
To the latest sensation—the new Grecian bend!
On Christmas Eve night, as in bed you all sleep,
With pack on my back down each chimney I'll creep,
I'll lay out my Presents, but oh! 'twill be shocking,
Should I find a hole in any one's stocking!
So, for HOLIDAY GOODS—for Dolls sweet as honey,
Go to McCORMICK'S—you'll save half your money!
Nice Presents or Gifts—any kind you require,
You'll find at the "FRANKLIN"—(the number enquire)
On FRONT STREET, Near Alder—105,
In fact you can't miss it—and when you arrive,
Don't ask goods at cost, for you'll find, if you try,
That goods sold "at cost" always cost very high!
But to purchasers all, this maxim I'd give,
Live well yourself, and thus let others live!

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851,
STEAM POWER, NOS 525 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

WOLFE'S CELEBRATED AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON!

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal Diet Drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself, exclusively at my factory at Schiedam in Holland.

In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys its efforts are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 3,000 letters from physicians, endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain-growing districts, is flavored with the [illegible] of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting [illegible] disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced on [illegible] bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases of dropsy gravel obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in

Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is sold by all Grocers and Apothecaries.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is recommended by all the Medical Faculty.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps
Is imitated and counterfeited, and purchasers will have to use caution in purchasing

WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS,

John English of Howell Prairie Marion county Oregon writes

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches [illegible] trying all remedies in common use [illegible] Balsam gave me instant relief and I was able to walk in [illegible] days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen your [illegible] used with excellent success. I have no hesitation in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever offered for those complaints. I am now on my way to [illegible] [illegible] after residing in Oregon twenty years. I would have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil dollar bottles as I am sure they are the best medicines in Oregon and I would not be without them in my house and when this package of medicines is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply

CHANGE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S
Native California Wine
BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and [illegible] defendant

[illegible] Samsevain being duly sworn says, "That the article known as Samsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully about the month of March 1861 without the said Samsevain [illegible] having any interest in the manufacture thereof. The deponent has always known and [illegible] Mercado & Seully as the Sole Proprietors of the Samsevain California Wine Bitters"

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P Samsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Samsevain's California Wine Bitters representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters which we have been manufacturing and selling since [illegible] 1860 and is [illegible] affixing a [illegible] label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS

Any one will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! The buyers of the Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar label and see that the words MERCADO & SEULLY SAN FRANCISCO are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeit imitation

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to every thing of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana,

TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST AND EUROPE

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

Commercial Reports

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

☞ REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS &c. as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or any [illegible] the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, [illegible] and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in [illegible] [illegible] county Oregon and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness

K B MOORE	NATHANIEL
A L WALLACE	G. R. WARD
Mrs MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M HOLLOWAY,
W D PORTER	ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity

Persons afflicted with the distressing [illegible] eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.
